YOUTH PERFORMANCE: "WE CAN CHANGE THE WORLD"

To be performed by Dean Andre & Ian Wallschlaeger (father & son)
Written & Produced by Sammie Lee Hill & Dean Andre

IAN WALLSCHLAEGER (Singer, Actor, & Performer): Ian Wallschlaeger, despite his age of 14 years, is a seasoned performer who already has established himself as an actor & singer. Ian is a freshman at Paraclete High School in Quartz Hill, California (near Lancaster). He has also starred in two films, "Dangerous Waters" with Richard Lynch & "Fish Don't Blink" with Lea Thompson, Dee Wallace Stone, & Wil Wheaton. Ian is proud to be performing today's original new song with his father, Dean Andre, his most influential mentor.

DEAN ANDRE (Composer, Conductor): Dean Andre is an accomplished musical director, composer, conductor, & producer. He has created musical scores for dozens of movies, productions, & concerts, & his talent & awards distinguish him as a legend in the music industry. Mr. Andre has received two Emmy nominations for his composition during his tenure as musical director at Filmation Studios where he supervised all duties including staff composer, music editor, & administrator of publishing. Mr. Andre has worked on such productions as "Aladdin" & "The Little Mermaid" (animated movies), "The Contract" (movie), "The Maker" (movie), & "The Electric Forest" (movie) in addition to hundreds of other film & commercial productions. Mr. Andre has also worked with artists such as Dweezil Zappa & Nikka Costa. He has extensive experience in the music industry, having been a singer & dancer himself from 1969 - 1973 with such performers as Diana Ross & Doc Severenson.

SAMMIE LEE HILL (Song Writer, Lyricist): Sammie Lee Hill was born in San Francisco & grew up in Richmond, California. He is a retired police officer with the San Pablo Police Department as well as a mentor at Richmond High School in northern California. He also teaches workshops for students in music publishing & copyrights. His success as a lyricist & songwriter has earned him numerous awards including the ASCAP Songwriter's Popular Award, Women In Cable & Tele-Communications, California Partners In Education, & the Richmond Youth Academy. Mr. Hill wrote the lyrics to the first State of California "Mentor Appreciation Day" (ACR #122) official theme song, "Mentor", which was chaptered by the Secretary of State on April 26, 2000, which was performed at last year's California Mentor Summit III. "Mentor" is currently being promoted on The National Mentoring Partnership's website: www.mentoring.org. Mr. Hill is part of the songwriting team Daniel-Hill-Daniel, about which information can be found at: www.daniel-hill-daniel.com, & he is also proud of his collaboration with Dean Andre on many projects.

"We Can Change The World" was written & composed as an original new song by Sammie Lee Hill & Dean Andre especially for the first ever National Mentor Summit 2001.

Stephanie Baldwin
Miss California 2001

Miss California 2001, Stephanie Baldwin will be performing Sammie Lee Hill's state of California "Mentor" theme song at this year's California Music Awards "Gold Circle" event on April 27 at the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center in Oakland. Miss California is also the state of California finalist for the next Miss America.

Sammie Lee Hill is also a mentor and community relations liaison at Richmond High School. He also teaches workshops for students in music publishing and copyrights.

Hill's song is the first-ever "Mentor Theme Song" in world's history. In fact, this incredible song has received numerous awards, including an ASCAP popular songwriter's award for its unique prestigious value for mentoring.

Hill said that after receiving phone calls from a major Hollywood Film production company, he anticipates that the song will eventually end-up as a theme song and soundtrack for a major inspirational film.

"I strongly believe that this "Mentor" theme song will someday be performed at the Grammy's and at the American Music Awards," said Sammie Lee Hill.

Dear Mr. Hill:

Congratulations on the selection of your song, "Mentor," by the California Legislature as the official theme song for Mentor Appreciation Day designated as May 1, 2000.

Your song combines the spirit of building self-reliance and creating community which mentoring engenders.

By creating such a powerfully inspiring ballad, each member of your songwriting team serves as role models by giving back to our community.

Your song will be a very positive influence on youth in our community. Again, congratulations on your success.

Sincerely,

Certificate Of Recognition

PRESENTED TO:

Invest in Kids
Mentor Appreciation Day
(ACR 122) Torlakson.

WHEREAS, Many of our young people do not have adequate time with adults to help them make sense of our increasingly fast-paced, rapidly-changing world;
WHEREAS, One-on-one time with a concerned and attentive adult has been demonstrated to increase self-esteem, bolster self-discipline, and raise grades;
WHEREAS, Mentoring has been shown to fortify many youths' incentives to stay away from the all-too-common lures of adolescence: drugs, alcohol, gangs, and guns;
WHEREAS, These experiences foster the two skills of social competence and ability to solve problems, and the two beliefs of autonomy and a sense of purpose; and
WHEREAS, Mentoring has been demonstrated to be instrumental in creating resiliency in young people;
Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring,
That May 1 of each year be known as Mentor
Appreciation Day, with "Mentor" as the theme song so that businesses, agencies, and the media may focus positive attention on the thousands of individuals who give selflessly of their time throughout the year.

Chapered by the Secretary of State
